

I am very much against the no call list being weakened in any way. People put their names on the list so that they will not be called, there shouldn't be any group of people that can breach that. Our credit union supports the no call list.